Thanks for the nice note Ehud. I feel good and I'm highly optimistic. I think I will always defer to you on the topics of courage and fighting spirit. I'll see you soon, I hope. And happy New Year to you, Nili and the family.

Dear Lloyd,

It was with great pain that I've just saw the news on you getting cancer.
Few people are so precious to their firms, the business world, their Nation and their (chosen) Tribe as you, Lloyd.
And of course, no one on Earth can be as precious to your family and beloved ones.

dear Lloyd,
Looking at your record, one can clearly see that the one resource which had never been in short supply there was personal courage and extraordinary fighting spirit,
at times, literally, against all odds.
May those courage and fighting spirit, backed by the the wishes and prayers of so many,Nili and myself among them, support you in the coming struggle and triumph hopefully will prevail.

Gmar Hatima Tova,
literally speaking.
Best
Ehud Barak
